Medical Power of Attorney

Enduring Power of Guardianship (WA)

Thank you for instructing us to prepare the attached Western Australia Medical Power of Attorney.

How to print your document

When you are satisfied that the document is according to your instructions please:

1. Download the PDF (Don't print directly from the browser.)
2. Print the PDF Printer settings: A4 paper
100% scale (turn off 'fit to page')
3. Print single sided (NOT duplex).
4. Once signed keep this covering letter with the document
(However, do not staple the covering letter to the document.)

How to sign your Enduring Power of Guardianship

1. Read the document to ensure it complies with your instructions.
2. Print out two copies and arrange for all parties to sign and date all copies of the POA. Print the document single sided.

You need two witnesses. They cannot be:

1. related to you; or
2. one of your Attorneys

The best witnesses are 'strangers' or the 'next door neighbour'.

3. First witness: Find someone that is authorised to witness affidavits (see the attached list). They are your first witness.
4. Second witness: This is any person over 18 years of age.

5. Attorneys you are appointing must leave the room.
6. Lock the doors so that you and your two witnesses cannot leave the room. (If you or either of your witnesses leave the room during the signing process, then tear up the POA and print out another copy of the POA and start the POA signing process again.)
7. If you or either of your witnesses need reading glasses, then don't sign the POA until you or your witnesses put on those glasses.
8. With a blue pen sign your POAs. After you have signed your POA, both witnesses (WITH THE SAME BLUE PEN) sign the POA.
9. Date the POA the date the POA is signed.
10. If you have issues reading English, then let me know. An interpreter may be required.

Get a Doctor's Certificate to say you are of sound mind.

Get a Doctor's Certificate to say you are of sound mind. You must have full legal capacity to sign this document. Ask your doctor to give you a written note to say you are of sound mind. Keep the doctor's note with the Medical Power of Attorney. Without a doctor's note your Medical Power of Attorney may not be valid.

Do my attorneys need to sign with me – at the same time?

The answer is 'no'. Your attorneys can sign on another day, in another country and with any coloured pen. They don't need to sign with you. They also don't need to be together when they sign.

Is my Power of Guardianship lodged or registered anywhere?

There is no lodgement or registration possible or required in Western Australia.

Does the WA Power of Guardianship work outside of Western Australia?

This POA only works in Western Australia. If you live or are holidaying in another State or country, then you need to also prepare POAs for those jurisdictions as well.

Does the Power of Attorney need to be stamped?

Your POA is not dutiable. It does not need to be lodged at the local stamp duty office.

Making copies

Don't let the original POA out of your hands. Ask the doctor or nursing home (or whoever needs it) to take a copy. They can "certify" (confirm it is a true copy) the POA and keep the copy for their records.

What is a Medical Power of Attorney?

You empower your attorneys to decide how your future personal, lifestyle and healthcare decisions are made. This is if you become unable to make those decisions yourself in Western Australia.

Wouldn't my spouse make my decisions for me?

The Medical Power of Attorney gives greater rights. If you wish your spouse, de facto partner, children or others you choose to make your decisions if you become unable, then you should name them as your guardian. If you want it to be someone else, name them instead.

When does the document come into effect?

This document ONLY comes into effect when you have lost capacity to make decisions for yourself such as being in an accident. There are no circumstances where it would be used while you are still able to make reasonable judgements about the matters covered by this document.

What decisions can the person receiving my Medical Power of Attorney make?

The person or persons you have appointed can make personal, lifestyle and health care decisions.

Some of these decisions can include:

- where you live, whether permanently or temporarily
- who you live with
- whether you work and under what circumstances
- consent to, or refuse any medical, surgical or dental treatment or other health care – this includes palliative care and life-sustaining measures
- what education and training you receive

Can the person receiving my Medical Power of Attorney override my wishes?

By law it can only be used for your best interests. It can't be used to benefit anyone else. It is in place to protect you. If you lose confidence in your guardian then you need to revoke the Medical Power of Attorney, if you are still of sound mind.

Can I revoke this document?

While you are of sound mind you can revoke this document at any time. If you are of unsound mind then, obviously, you can't make any such decisions. While you are of unsound mind you can't revoke a legal document such as this one. Your document is revoked at death. (Conversely, your Will only takes effect at death.) The court system can also revoke this document.

How do I revoke this document?

Firstly, tear up as many copies (originals and photocopies) as you can get your hands on.

Build a Revocation of a Power of Attorney and letter at our website. You then complete and sign the letter and send it via registered mail to your Guardian telling them that the Power of Attorney is revoked and ask for all copies to be posted back to you (if any). It is then illegal if they use your Medical Power of Attorney.

What happens if I separate, divorce or get married?

Changing your status does not affect the Medical Power of Attorney.

Can the person receiving my Medical Power of Attorney resign?

Yes, they can, but only if you are still of sound mind. If you are of unsound mind then it is too late for them to resign.

Does my Attorney need one of the original Power of Attorneys?

There is no legal requirement for an attorney to accept your POA in any time frame. An attorney can accept your POA many years later. And if you have appointed more than one attorney, they can accept many years apart from each other. They don't need to accept your POA on the same day. Indeed, your attorneys may be living outside of Australia in different countries. However, your POA won't come into operation for that attorney until that attorney does sign. But the signing can be done when the POA is needed.

Further, there is no legal requirement to hand over one of your original POAs to any of your attorneys. You may, however, wish to do so. At the very least:

1. You should speak to your potential attorneys to make sure they are happy to take on the onerous job of holding the attorney position;
2. Let them know where the POA is kept "at my home in my grey filing cabinet and when it is needed you can get the POA and accept it then"; or
3. You may wish to email them a soft copy and the covering letter that we provide so they can understand how it can be used in the future (it can be signed or unsigned, it is just a soft copy). If they need a hand, later, they can telephone us for advice.

This now concludes the matter. Thank you for your instructions.

Yours sincerely,
